

Servant Leadership Conversations

A Monthly Meeting of Fond du Lac Area Servant Leaders

7:00 a.m.—8:30 a.m.

Children’s Museum—Fond du Lac | 75 West Scott Street

Coffee & Conversations are opportunities for area leaders to gather and learn from each other. The goal is to build, share, and express knowledge as a learning community that offers a highly interactive, participatory experience focused on servant leadership topics. As a peer-facilitated meeting, attendees can expect to learn individual and organizational best practices, explore questions, share servant-leadership success stories and meaningful resources.

Leadership Learning Circle Series

The purpose of the learning circle series is to engage and activate caring leaders to serve and lead in the Fond du Lac area. Participants gain insight into practices based on the principles of servant leadership, dialogue, self-awareness, and strengths, along with skills needed for building a caring community.

Engaging Community. Igniting Potential.
